ENGLISHMAN DECEIVED; A POLITICAL PAMPHLET:

Lately published in London, and much admired; WHEREIN

Some very important Secrets of State

Are briefly recited,

And offered to the Consideration of the P U B L I C.

Divide & impera Divide & perde.

This is the most spirited piece that has been publish'd in England in favour of the British Colonies, and abounds with remarks equally judicious and important.

The ANATOMIST, No. VI.

Was there no felony, no bawd, Cut-purse, nor burglary abroad?
No stolen pig, nor plunder'd goose,
To tie thee up from breaking loose?
No ale unlicens'd, broken hedge,
For which thou statute might'st alledge,
To keep thee busy from foul evil?—

BUTLER.

I N my last, I had given some account of the attack made on the church, by Mr.
Smith, the impartial presbyterian historian of New-York; and endeavoured to shew, that nothing but the most determined resolution to traduce the church, and the society for the propagation of the gospel, could have induced that gentleman to assert, that the late Dr.
Barclay was obliged to break up his Mohawk mission, because no suitable provision had been made for an interpreter by the society.

Dr. Barclay received holy orders, and was appointed to that mission in 1737; and supposing Mr. Smith so extremely ignorant of the transactions of the country whereof he undertakes to write a history, as not to know that Dr. Barclay had, at a provincial expence, spent two years in endeavouring to acquire the Mohawk language, before he went for orders, and carried home with him a certificate from the commissioners for Indian affairs, setting forth, that he had attained such a knowledge in that language, as to be able to perform divine service in it; yet surely the historian must have seen the following message from Governor Clarke in December 1740, from which it would seem that the Doctor's labours did not meet with any obstruction from want of skill in the Indian language, nor from any other cause but that mentioned in the message.

The Mohawk Sachems (says the Governor to the Assembly have represented to me the irreparable condition of the chapel formerly built for their religious worship, and desiring to have a new one built: I cannot but earnestly recommend it to you, as a thing worthy the consideration of a Christian assembly. The progress already made by the reverend Mr. Barclay, opens to our view a glorious prospect of spreading the Christian faith and worship throughout all the Six nations, especially if he be enabled by you to proceed in the work he has so happily and successfully begun.

The honourable mention here made of my labours (continues the Doctor) by the Governor, proceeded from the great satisfaction he received in seeing the regular and decent behaviour of the Indians at public worship at Albany, where he held a treaty with them. For however unhappily my mission ended, I had the pleasure of seeing some fruit of my labours 'til the two last years. I found them a most ignorant savage people, so universally addicted to drunkenness, that scarce a day passed without seeing several of them intoxicated, and frequently above three-fourths of them, the women as well as men, fighting and tearing each other like ravenous beasts. They were in a short time so far reclaimed, that I have sometimes, for two months together, not seen above ten of them drunk; and the women, excepting a few of the elder, were wholly reclaimed.

It is well known that I was so universally beloved, that I became the umpire of all their differences, and had so great an ascendant over them, that they permitted me to appoint officers to seize all spirituous liquors that were brought among them for sale. I found them without the use of letters, which rendering their instruction very tedious, obliged me to open a school, to teach them to read and write, which I attended six hours a day, the two first years, with such surprising success, that in about four years from my first coming among them, many were able to bear their parts in the church-service with great decency and regularity. Many of them were well advanced in the knowledge of Christianity; and their attendance and behaviour at public worship was matter of reproach to their neighbours, who had enjoyed the light of the gospel from their infancy, under much greater advantages.

Thus I went on, encouraged with a most pleasing prospect of seeing the rising generation a very regular and serious Christian congregation; and, at the same time, had the opportunity of preaching once every Lord's day to a considerable English congregation, and sometimes to a much larger of Low-Dutch, whose language I was well versed in.
But, to my great grief and mortification, these pleasing hopes were soon cut off. A strange jealousy was infused into the poor Indians, a little before the breaking out of the last French war, by a very wicked and malicious person, of which I gave the Society an account. Upon this I found their regard and affection for me sensibly diminishing till the latter end of the year 1744; when, in the dead of night, the Indians were alarmed with a pretended discovery of a horrid plot to murder them all, of which I was represented as the chief contriver. This would have cost me my life in the rage of their first resentments, had not some of the more intelligent among them, as they afterwards confessed, prevented it. The particulars of this affair I also gave the Society an account of at the time when it happened, and they are also very well known to the honourable Mr. Clinton, who was at that time Governor of New-York. I continued after this near fifteen months, labouring under the greatest discouragements, and using all possible methods to regain their confidence and affection, but with little success; and at last, by the advice of some of my steadiest friends among the Indians themselves, I retired to Albany in April 1746.

These were the reasons of my leaving the Indians, and not the want of a suitable provision for an interpreter.—From whom Mr. Smith had his information concerning the reason of my breaking up my mission, I know not; but he has been acquainted with me upwards of ten years last past, and might have seen me almost every day during that time. In the note under the forty-second page, he gives an account of the "extreme mortification, inextinguishable zeal, and great success of Mr. David Brainerd, a late missionary from the Scotch Society among some Indians in New-Jersey, not one of whom, he tells us, has been concerned in those barbarous irruptions which have lately deluged the south-western provinces with the blood of several hundred innocents of every age and sex." And concludes this note in the following words. "Dr.
Douglass, ever ready to do honour to his native country, after remarking that this self-denying clergyman rode about 400 miles in the year 1744, with an air of approbation asks, is there any missionary from any of the Societies for propagating the gospel in foreign parts, that has reported the like?"

As to Mr. Brainerd's mortification and zeal, every good man must approve and commend these virtues wherever they are found, and I hope he is now reaping the glorious rewards of them.
As to his success, tho' Paul plant, and Apollos water, it is God alone that gives the increase. I heartily wish I could say that I had heard those Indians continue the same regular society of Christians since his death. His brother and successor in that mission, I am told, has left them, and taken the charge of an English congregation at Newark.

With regard to myself, I confess that I might have been more mortified, more zealous and industrious than I have been; and I pray God to pardon my defects. However, blessed be his goodness, which has enabled me to say, that I have not been altogether destitute of these virtues, to indispensably ne-

* This was the case at the time of Dr. Barclay's writing. But Mr. Brainerd, the brother, since had, and now has, I believe, some Jersey Indians under his pastoral care, and his labours among them are well reported of.

cessary to an Indian missionary. And tho' I never reported the number of miles I have rode in the discharge of my mission, hundreds can attest that it was many more than 400 every year. And much more is done by several missionaries in the Society's service. As to Mr. Smith's remark on that happy effect of Mr. Brainerd's mission, viz. "That not one of those Indians have been concerned in those barbarous irruptions, &c. I am persuaded some prejudice must have prevented his making the same observations with regard to the Mohawks, as it is most notorious that they have not only been inoffensive, but are the only tribe of the Confederates that have openly joined us, and attended our armies in the present war."

"But how comes every favourable circumstance that may redound to the credit of the English Society, or their missionaries, to be thus passed over in silence by this impartial historian, and whence all those insinuations to their disadvantage?" The Doctor gives the same reason that has already been advanced; namely, that the intention of all these misrepresentations of the Society, and their conduct, is to dry up the charities which they receive from benevolent minds in Great-Britain, and thus to reduce the interest of the church to as low an ebb as possible in the colonies.

But not content "with passing over in silence what might redound to the credit of the English Society, and their missionaries," this historian, in the abundance of his spleen, does not scruple sometimes to invent, rather than fail in charges against them.

"The episcopal missionaries (says he, page 42) for enlarging the sphere of their secular business, not many years ago, attempted, by a petition to the late Governor Clinton, to engross the privilege of solemnizing all marriages. A great clamour ensued, and the attempt was abortive."

Dr. Barclay shews this whole paragraph to be an absolute falsehood. He appeals to Governor Clinton, and all concerned in the government, whether any such attempt was ever made, directly or indirectly, or any such petition ever presented? As to the great clamour said to ensue, he appeals to the whole province (Mr. Smith excepted) whether any such clamour was ever heard?

"I can speak (says he) with certainty, as Mr. Smith fixes the time of this imaginary attempt to Governor Clinton's administration, and not many years ago—Now the petition presented to Governor Clinton by the clergy (and the only one ever presented to him by them) was in May 1748—letting forth, that some inconveniencies arose from justices of the peace taking upon them to execute marriage licences, by virtue of their direction—to any protestant minister; alledging, that justices of the peace, being ministers of justice, were † protestant ministers, and capable of executing the licence. The prayer of the clergy therefore was, that an addition might be made to the future direction of licences thus, viz. "To any protestant minister of the gospel (Mr. Smith says, not very accurately—"To all protestant ministers of the gospel")—The Governor complied with this request, and, far from raising any clamour, the measure was greatly approved by † the clergy of all other denominations, who reaped proportionably far more benefit from it than the episcopal clergy."

But it was of little consequence to this historian, whether the episcopal clergy did well or ill. For in the temper with which he wrote, obloquy and misrepresentation were to be their portion. And yet if ever his history should come to a second edition, charity would make one hope that more years, with better consideration and enquiry, may release him from some of his prejudices, and make him appear with that dignity as a historian, which his composition, and confessed abilities, might otherwise give him some title to hold.

But the party did not choose to trust their cause long to this history. For finding, probably, that it soon began to share the fate of many other mortal compositions, namely, to rest harmless on its shelf, the ball was still to be kept up against the church; as if it were by alternate blows from presbyterian and independent.

The great Dr. Mayhew, of Boston, therefore, next enters the lists, as if ready to burst with all the reiterated tales about Bishops, the church and the Society for propagating the gospel. But I beg pardon for offering to place this Goliath of the party

† It is told of the late Bishop Sherlock, that when he was informed that the justices celebrated marriages from this plea of their being protestant ministers of justice, replied in his blunt way—"and so may the hangman, he being also a protestant minister of justice."

† The like alteration was made by Governor Franklin, some years ago, in the direction of his licences, on an application of the episcopal clergy of New-Jersey, and the presbyterians were well pleased with it.

(to whom the Centinel is but a dwarf) in the tail of my paper. He shall therefore have the front of my next, and I purpose that the tail of it shall reach to the Centinel, not to part again till we have settled our account.

P. S. October 10. The Remonstrant, No. I. has just come to my hand. There is nothing in it that gives me uneasiness, but that the Remonstrant, from his ignorance of Latin, should make me put Dr. Chandler on a level with Mr. Carmichael, when my words are—Si parvis magna componere licet.—In English.

If little men may be to great compared, The curious anecdotes of A. B. are come to hand, by favour of Messieurs Hall and Sellers; by whom also any other papers, directed to the Anatomist, will be carefully delivered to him.

BOSTON, October 10, 1768.
JOURNAL OF TRANSACTIONS.

TWO Circular Letters of Lord Hillsborough's this Day seen in print; whereby it appears that the Commissioners of the Board of Customs had repeatedly complained of being obstructed in the Execution of their Office. The Proceedings of Council on the 27th and 29th of July last, which G—r B—d hitherto prevented being made public, declares to the World, that no Insult had been offered the Commissioners; That, "what happened on the 10th of June, seems to have sprung wholly from those who complain of it, and that it seems probable, an Uproar was hoped for and intended to be seconded by the Manner of Proceeding, in making the Seizure of the Sloop Liberty; that their quitting the Town was a voluntary Act, without any sufficient Ground for the same, and that when at the Castle, there was no Occasion for Men of War to protect them." "That it is their unanimous Opinion, the Civil Power does not need the Support of Troops; that it is not for his Majesty's Service, nor the Peace of this Province, that any Troops be required, or that any come into the Province; and that they deem any Persons who may have made Application for Troops to be sent hither, in the highest Degree unfriendly to the Peace and good Order of this Government, as well as to his Majesty's Service and the British Interest in America." How detested and abhorred by the People must that G—r and those Men then be, who, not content with having by their Misrepresentations introduced Troops into this Province, are now leaving no Stone unturned in order to procure Quarters for them in this Metropolis, to the great Vexation and Distress of the Inhabitants, as also in Violation of Law and Justice, which must be the Case, while they are quartered in the Town, to disturb and annoy the Inhabitants, and while the Barracks provided by the Province, at a very considerable Expence, remain empty!—The Prints of this Day contain a very extraordinary Advertisement, published by Order of the Commissioners of Customs, whereby it appears that the Inhabitants of Nantucket, who are mostly of the Persuasion called Quakers, have not accommodated Mr. Samuel Procter, an Officer of the Customs lately sent among them, with an Office, and that therefore Orders are issued to their several Officers in America, to make Seizure of all Vessels, and their Cargoes, that shall arrive from that Island, without proper Documents, signed by the Collector and D. Comptroller of the Port of Boston. —If Quarters are to be provided by the People for Custom-House Officers, who are daily increasing upon us, as well as for his Majesty's Troops, we shall quickly perceive that we are without Quarters ourselves.

Octo. 11. We have certain Information, that at a full Meeting of the Inhabitants of Lebanon, a large Town in Connecticut, convened the 26th of September last, in consequence of Intelligence that Troops were soon expected in Boston, to be quartered upon the Town; said Inhabitants unanimously expressed their Sentiments and Resolutions as follows, "That a Union of Measures is absolutely necessary, at this important Crisis, in order to maintain our Liberties and Immunities, and that they fully agreed with their Brethren of Boston, in the Resolves they passed in a late Town Meeting; and that considering themselves connected by the strongest Ties to their Fellow Subjects, in this and the neighbouring Colonies, they should look upon an Attack upon them, as though they themselves were the immediate Sufferers, and that with a determinate, unalterable Resolution and Firmness, they would assert and support their American Brethren, at the Expence of their Lives and Fortunes; should their Welfare, which is so intimately blended with their own, demand the Sacrifice." As it is thought the above shews the Disposition, not only of the other Towns in that Colony, but of the rest of the Provinces; how must the Friends of Britain applaud the Prudence and Wisdom of the late Committee of Convention in Boston, who in tenderness to the Mother Country, and Loyalty to their Sovereign, under all their Grievances, while they adhered strictly to their Rights, yet strongly recommended Peace and Quietness to the People, until the Effect of their last Representations and Petitions could be known.

Octo. 12. Advice received that the Merchants in Connecticut, have agreed as those in Massachusetts, and New-York, &c. had done before them, not to import any Goods from Great Britain, till the late Revenue Acts, &c. are repealed.—A Measure that must have the greatest Tendency to awaken the attention of the Mercantile and Manufactural Part of Britain to their own immediate Interest, which they lately seem to have quite lost Sight of. The Rumour of Castle William being delivered up by the G—r to the King's Troops, arose from his having permitted a Number of Mariners from the Ships of War, to land at Castle Island, six of whom it is said went off in a Boat the last Night.

Reports of great Desertions and a general Disposition to desert from the Regiments here, which it is said left Halifax under great Dejection of Spirits; about 21 of the Soldiers absconded the last Night, and Parties from the Troops with other Clothing, instead of their Regimentals, are sent after them.—Some of the Consequences of bringing the Troops into this Town, in direct Violation of the Act of Parliament, and disregard to the Advice of his Majesty's Council, instead of Quartering them in the Barracks on Castle Island, are like to be the scattering proper Tutors through the Country, to instruct the Inhabitants in the modern Way of handling the Firelock and exercising the Men, and also in the various Manufactures which the Ingenuity and Industry of the People of Great Britain have hitherto furnished us with.—This Night a Surgeon of one of the Ships of War being guilty of very disorderly Behaviour, was committed to Gaol by Mr. Justice Quincy, as was also a Person, not belonging to this Province, by Mr. Justice Hutchinson, on Complaint of a Soldier, that he had been enticing him to desert; said Stranger was first taken and confined by Captain Willson, in the Town House for some Time, without Warrant or Authority from any Magistrate.—If the Oaths of Soldiers who are promised 10 Guineas for such Discoveries, are to be taken at sufficient Proof, we know not what Prescriptions may take Place.

Octo. 13. A private Letter from Halifax contains some Particulars relative to the Boston Expedition, not known before, viz. "That in Consequence of Orders received Sept. 11th, from this Place, all the Workmen in the King's Yard, necessary to equip the Ships, were set to work on Sunday; a strict Embargo laid, and Guard Vessels sent to the Mouth of the Harbour to prevent Intelligence being sent, and more Caution used then when fixing out for the Louisbourg Expedition; the Embargo so strict, that an open Sloop going a Mackerel catching, was stoped and sent back to Town; and that the Troops embarked in its great hurry as was ever known in Time of War.—What a Tragical-Comic Scene is here presented! and how must it be viewed by European Politicians?—Another Letter mentions, that as Halifax must sink without the Support of Troops and Ships of War, some of their Patriots were about erecting a Liberty Pole, and employing some Boys to sing the Liberty Song through the Streets, in hopes it may procure the Return of those Ships and Forces or a larger Number from Britain, in order to quell such Disturbances. Accounts received from various Parts of this Province and the neighbouring Colonies, that the Tea Table Furniture and other foreign Superfluities, have given Place to Spinning Wheels, Looms, and other Utensils of Industry; and that the Aversion to British Manufactures increases in Proportion to the Measures taken to impoverish and enslave us. It is said the Officer who gave out the Orders last Evening, observed to the Soldiery, that the Practices of the Inhabitants to entice them away from the Service, was not out of Affection to them, but from Disaffection to the Government.—Such Insinuations are a little Ungenerous, as the Troop is under the greatest Uneasiness that the Troops are not placed in the Government's Barracks, which being on Castle Island, would have prevented any Desertion, and many other Evils and Disorders, which are daily taking Place.

His Majesty's C—l met this Day, when we are told the G—r was informed that it was the Opinion of the B—d, that they were not held by their Oaths as C—l—rs to keep such Matters and Things as he has or may commit to them, as a Secret, unless the B—d shall judge it for his Majesty's Interest so to do.

Octo. 14. The Troops still keep Possession of Faneuil Hall, the Court House, Representative Chambers, &c. Guards placed at the Passage Way into the Town, near the Neck. Patrolling Companies near the Ferry Ways, and Parties sent into the Country to prevent Desertions: In the Forenoon one Rogers, a New-England Man, sentenced to receive 1000 Stripes, and a Number of other Soldiers, were scourged in the Common by the black Drummers, in a Manner, which however necessary, was shocking to Humanity; some Gentlemen who York, at this Time, is a very agreeable Circumstance, to the Friends of their Country; at his mild and judicious Behaviour in that Province, has been justly applauded; and he comes here determined to see and judge for himself.*

Octo. 16. This Day Capt. Jenkins arrived from London, who brought a Print of August 13th, in which there is the following Article,—"There are 4000 Troops ordered for Boston, which it is thought will sufficiently intimidate those People to comply with the Laws enacted in England; especially as the other Colonies seem to have deserted them."—The Design of sending Troops among us, was before fully comprehended; all the Colonies that have been permitted to meet, have united with us in humble Petitions and Remonstrances, and it is hoped that the Merchants of Philadelphia have, or will soon co-operate in a Measure our Friends at Home represent as the most likely to procure a Redress of Grievances.

August 29. It is the opinion of certain politicians, that the King of Sardinia would oppose the French in taking possession of Corsica, were it not that the Machiavilian Court of Versailles has persuaded him that he may yet have a fair opportunity to set up his pretensions to the Imperial Diadem of these Kingdoms, in which case, not only that perfidious Court, but that of Spain also, would not fail to assist him in establishing Popery, Slavery, and other arbitrary power, throughout the British dominions. #### N E W - Y O R K, October 27.

Extract of a Letter from Brunswick, New-Jersey, dated October 15. (Inserted by D. fire.)

"On Wednesday last was held here a Convention of the Church Clergy of New-York and New-Jersey, assisted by Delegates from several neighbouring Provinces; on which Occasion, a Sermon, much in favour of American Bishops, was preached by the Revd. Mr. Odell Missionary of Burlington. It is suspected by many, that a principal Design of the late frequent and numerous Conventions, is in Order to a spirited Application to the Powers at Home, upon some supposed Abuses of the Church, in two neighbouring Colonies, which it is pretended amount almost to Persecution. Is it not to the last Degree cruel and mean, to take this Opportunity to attack us on this Matter, at a Time when the united Efforts of all Sects, are so necessary in the common Cause of Liberty?"

SUPPLEMENT to the NEW-YORK JOURNAL

OR GENERAL ADVERTISER.—NUMB. 1347.

[THURSDAY OCTOBER 27, 1768.]

L O N D O N, August 12.

AN express over land from the East-Indies, has brought, it is said disagreeable news.

Aug. 13. They write from Québec, that one Duberdu a Frenchman, has been arrested at Montreal, for treasonable practices with the Indians of Ontario.

The Right Revd. and Hon. Doct. Cornwallis, Bishop of Litchfield and Coventry, yesterday kissed the King's hand, on his nomination to the Archbishopric of Canterbury.

The late Archbishop has left £. 1000 to be divided among his servants, and after the Death of Mrs. Talbot and her Daughter £. 11,000 to charitable uses, viz. To the society for propagation of the gospel £. 1000. To the same toward the establishment of bishops in America £. 1000. To the society for promoting christian knowledge £. 500. Irish Protestant working schools £. 500. Corporation of widows and children of the poor clergy £. 500. Stewards of that charity £. 200. Bromley college in Kent £. 500; the three Hospitals at Croydon, Canterbury and Harbledown £. 1500. The St. George's London, and lying in Hospitals £. 1500. The Asylum of Lambeth £. 400. The Magdalen, the Lying in, and the inoculating Hospitals £. 900.—The incurable's St. Luke's £. 500. Repairing or rebuilding houses belonging to poor livings in Canterbury £. 2000. Great part of his library, he has left to the public library at Lambeth, and the residue of his estate which was not large, to his nephew Mr. Thomas Frost, at Nottingham. Great part of his income during his life, was likewise applied to charitable uses. He has desired that no monument or epitaph may be placed for him any where.

Aug. 16. It is observed that there are more French noblemen now in London, than ever there were English at one time in Paris.

It is said a scheme is on foot to establish a royal bank, in each of the principal colonies, their capitals subject to an interest of 3 per Cent. It is said the Governor of S. Carolina, has desired leave to resign, that instructions have been sent to Admiral Palliser, to join the naval commander at Bolton, and if necessary to repair thither himself.—That a certain great sea officer has declined taking on him the command of the expedition beyond the atlantic, —that several removes have been made in the navy and virtually boards, and that some capital military resignations will speedily take place.

The men of war ordered to North-America, are to take on board several hundred men, besides their complement for the use of the navy in North-America.

The resignation of General Amherst, is greatly regretted by the military gentlemen, especially those under his command in North-America, where his obliging generous behaviour, gain'd him the love and esteem of the community in general.

The King of Denmark it is said is to furnish G. Britain with 30 sail of ships of the line, whenever there may be occasion for them.

The Dutch have caught 180 whales among 40 ships this year, in Davis's freights; a new fishery.

Mr. Wilkes, who was removed by habeas corpus, in custody, to give evidence at Guilford, concerning the murder of Mr. Allen, was treated by the judge (Baron Smythe) with great sternness and contempt, and used in the most scurvy manner, by those who had charge of him.—However the greatest respect was shewn him by most of the inhabitants of Guilford, and by the people in the towns and places thro' which he passed,—some think, or say, that his popularity begins to decline, because there is not so much said about him as has been; but it does not appear that there is any foundation for such a supposition or report, or that so long as he adheres to the cause he has espoused, he will not be more powerfully and vigorously supported than ever.

A letter from the Lower Elbe says, "Most of the German public papers inform us that the Russians have been obliged, for the second time, to retire from before Cracow; adding, that the King of Poland had resolved to leave Warsaw, and that having lost a part of his revenues, his Majesty was obliged to stop all the pensions which he had granted."

Aug. 18. On Tuesday some dispatches were forwarded to Commodore Palliser, on the Newfoundland station.

August 20. His Danish Majesty, we hear, has already, with the utmost princely liberality, not only given large sums to various Charities, but declared an intention to shew some additional marks of munificence before his departure from this kingdom.

S A L E M, October 11.

Extrait of a Letter from Harbour Grace, Newfoundland, dated September 19, 1768.

"Last Thursday we had such a Gale of Wind as never was known in these Parts, which destroyed more than two Hundred Boats in this Bay, two Vessels lost, and several more damaged, many Boat-keepers have lost their all; and we hear daily of Numbers of Vessels, Boats, and Men lost from every Part of the Land."

PHILADELPHIA, October 17.

On Friday last the Representatives of this Province met agreeable to the Laws and Charter, and unanimously chose Joseph Galloway, Esq; Speaker.

On Saturday the House appointed Mr. Charles Moore, their Clerk, and Mr. Owen Jones, Provincial Treasurer.

Benjamin Franklin, and Richard Jackson, Esqrs, were also appointed Agents, to transact the Business of the Province in London. And,

The same Day the House adjourned to Monday the second Day of January next.

We learn that the House, desirous of promoting whatever may tend to the Improvement of useful Knowledge, have ordered their Speaker, to procure from London a reflecting Telescope, with a Micrometer of the Construction for taking Observations upon that uncommon Phenomenon the Transit of Venus over the Sun, which will happen on third Day of June next.

The New-York Paper Manufactory, Ready Money for clean Linen Rags, may be had of JOHN KEATING, between the Fly-Market and Burling's-Ship.

⚡ All those who have the Welfare of the Country at Heart, are desired seriously to consider the Importance of a Paper Manufactory to this Government and how much Good they may do it, by preserving the Linen Rags, particularly the fine ones, which would be otherwise useless; their saving of Rags is recommended, not so much for the Money which they will immediately fetch (which can be but a trifle) but the Benefit which will accrue to the Public in general if the Manufactory is supplied with Rags, so as to enable us to make a sufficient Quantity of Paper for our own Consumption, and by this Means keep in the Province the Sums of Money, which are annually remitted for this single Commodity, and when once sent from hence, are entirely lost to us, Whereas by manufacturing of it here, Numbers of poor People are daily employ'd and the Money still remains in a circulating State; it is therefore hop'd that all Persons will be as careful as possible in saving that, which evidently appears will be of public Utility.

N. B. As the Paper Mill is now completed, those who have Rags by them, are requested to bring them in and all Persons who want to be supplied with Paper of this Manufacture, are desired to send their Orders to John Keating, which shall be completed as fast as possible.
